Representations having been made in the Representative Assembly of 1906 and 1907 about the inconvenience caused by the Head master of the Hole-Narasipur Anglo-Vernacular school being also in charge of the Weaving Institute at the place, (an aided institution), and the desirability of having a Head master solely to be in charge of the Anglo-Vernacular School, the question was referred to the Inspector General of Education

2 Mr Bhabha reported that the Head master of the Anglo-Vernacular school, Mr Sampthiengar, was satisfactorily discharging his duties both in the Anglo-Vernacular school and the Weaving Institute and that it was expedient, in the interests of both the institutions, that he should continue to have the supervision of both, but that, with a view to give some relief to Mr Sampthiengar, an additional teacher on Rs.20 for the Anglo-Vernacular school might be sanctioned This recommendation was approved as a temporary measure for one year with effect from the
